CORRECTED ORDER
FURTHER MODIFYING
DISCOVERY SCHEDULE

BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court is in receipt of the parties' letter jointly proposing revisions to the discovery schedule. (Dkt. 52-1.) The proposed revisions are accepted for the most part. The fifth revised order modifying the discovery schedule (Dkt. 42) is therefore again modified as follows:

1. Mediation. The parties have agreed to mediate this case. The mediation is scheduled for July 7, 2023.
2. Outstanding Discovery. All remaining fact discovery, including depositions, shall be completed no later than September 1, 2023.
 - a. Nothing herein permits the parties to delay the deposition of Erik Espinosa. See Dkt. 47 ¶ 2.
3. Expert Discovery. Disclosure of expert evidence, including the identities and written reports of experts, as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(A), (B), or (C), shall be made no later than October 2, 2023. The disclosure of expert evidence intended solely to contradict or rebut expert evidence on the same subject matter disclosed by the opposing party shall be made no later than October 23, 2023. Depositions of experts shall be completed no later than November 30, 2023.
4. Close of Discovery. All discovery shall be completed no later than November 30, 2023.
5. Status Conference. Judge Moses will conduct a status conference on October 25, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. No later than October 18, 2023, the parties shall submit a joint status letter outlining the progress of discovery to date, as well as any settlement efforts. If public health conditions so require and/or no discovery controversies exist at that time, the parties may request that the conference be held telephonically.

All applicable provisions of the Initial Case Management Order, dated January 19, 2022 (Dkt. 20) remain in effect. No further extensions will be granted absent compelling circumstances.
